Acconeer has sold more than half a million A1 radar sensors

As of today, Acconeer has sold more than 500 000 A1 radar sensors in total since the company started selling Evaluation Kits (EVKs) in February 2018.

Lars Lindell, CEO Acconeer, comments: "Today we ship our radar sensor number 500 000 since we started selling it online, and we are very happy to pass yet another milestone. I February 2020, 24 months after sales start, we reached 100 000 sensors sold and seven months later we passed 200 000. Now in less than a year we have sold an additional 300 000 radar sensors, despite a pandemic and global shortage of components which have slowed down our customers' production. We are now looking forward to passing the next milestone of having sold one million sensors."

Starting in 2021, Acconeer reports accumulated sales in financial reports, by the end of Q2 2021 the company had sold in total 440 000 radar sensors.

About Acconeer AB

With ground-breaking technology, Acconeer has developed a radar sensor that opens a new world of interaction. Acconeer Micro Radar Sensor, with low power consumption, high precision, small size and high robustness, is a 60GHz robust and cost-effective sensor for detection, distance measurement, motion detection and camera-supported applications with low power consumption. Acconeer combines the advantage of low power consumption with highly accurate pulsed radar systems of coherent radar, all integrated into a component with a surface area of only 28 mm². The radar sensor can be included in a range of mobile consumer products, from smartphones to wearables, but also in areas such as robots, drones, the Internet of Things, healthcare, automotive, industrial robots and security and monitoring systems. Acconeer is a semiconductor company and, as a business model, sells hardware to manufacturers of consumer electronics products. Acconeer is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market with the ticker code ACCON, Redeye is the company's Certified Advisor (CA) and can be contacted via telephone +46(0)8 121 576 90 or via e-mail certifiedadviser@redey.se.
