CDON's CFO leaves his position

CFO Niclas Szieger, has today decided to leave his current position at CDON.

“Niclas has been a great asset for CDON and a key person in the company's transformation from a e-retailer to a digital marketplace. He has successfully built up the finance department and carried out the market listing of the company. I want to thank Niclas for his contribution at CDON and wish him all the best in the future.”, says Josephine Salenstedt, Chairperson of the Board of CDON.

“I'm grateful for the time with CDON and proud of the platform we have built. I'm convinced that CDON and the team in place are now well equipped for the forthcoming period of high growth.” says Niclas Szieger, CFO.

Niclas will continue in his current role for six months or until a new CFO takes over. The recruitment process for a new CFO begins immediately.
