Following the global trend of demand for TV-series, Mavshack publishes this week exciting superhero and drama series for Mavshack's worldwide audience

Mavshack delivers Ang Panday and Valiente in support of its commitment to continuously deliver new and relevant content to its target audience.

Ang Panday (The Blacksmith) is one of the most iconic comic based superheroes in Philippine pop culture that has spawned 8 movies, a cartoon series and a television series. Created by Carlos J. Caparas, recognized as the Philippine version of Stan Lee, it has been rebooted as a television series that stars Richard Gutierrez who is acclaimed as the Super Hero Heartthrob of Philippine Movies and TV. It was premiered in February 29, 2016 and the first 30 episodes are now available for Mavshacks worldwide audience.

Valiente (Brave) is the remake of the Philippine's longest running daytime television drama of the same title and tells the story of love, hatred, vengeance and friendship. In this reboot, the cast from the original series took on older roles while some lead roles were taken over by the kids of the original leads. It returns with a cast led by JC de Vera, Oyo Boy Sotto, Niña Jose, Nadine Samonte, Jaclyn Jose and Michael de Mesa, written by Phil M. Noble from the original story of Gina Marissa Tagasa and directed by Joel Lamangan. All 98 episodes are now available for Mavshacks Worldwide Audience.

"These new content, which we have licensed from TV5 International, will add hundreds of hours into Mavshack's growing library and we are proud to say to our worldwide audience that this is only the beginning and they can expect more to come", says Rainier David, CEO of Mavshack.
