

Invitation to Teqnion's first ever Qapital market hour

Teqnion is excited to invite investors, financial analysts, entrepreneurs, media and anyone interested in getting more information about the company at the first ever Teqnion Qapital market hour. Johan and Daniel will be present trying to answer your questions. The Teams event will take place on September 19th at 16:08 CET and will be conducted in English.

After the opening bell, Johan will kick off the event with a shorter introduction to Teqnion but we hope to have an interactive dialogue and fill most of the hour with questions from the audience. If you have questions for us, feel free to send them to daniel@teqnion.se before the event or write them directly in the chat during the live stream. The event will be recorded and later uploaded to our website.
