Jenny Appenrodt leaves her role as CFO at KlaraBo

Jenny Appenrodt has announced that she has decided to leave her position as CFO of KlaraBo. Jenny will remain in her role for the next six months, or until a replacement is recruited.

"I joined the company a year before the IPO, and it has been a fantastic journey from an unlisted smaller real estate company to a more than twice as large listed real estate company. The company has now entered a new phase and I believe that it is a good time to hand it over to someone else," says Jenny Appenrodt.

"I would like to thank Jenny for all the hard work and support, not least with all the preparations for our IPO a year ago. I wish her the best of luck," says Andreas Morfiadakis.

The process of finding a replacement has begun.

About KlaraBo

KlaraBo is a real estate company that acquires, builds, owns and manages attractive residential properties. The company was founded in 2017 and operates throughout the country. The strategy is to acquire existing residential properties as well as land for new construction in regions with population growth and a strong labour market. Our newly constructed apartments are developed in-house and space efficient, which contribute to reasonable rents. Both apartments and buildings are designed in collaboration with the municipality to fit local needs. With wood as the main building material, the new construction holds a high environmental standard. KlaraBo is a long-term property owner. KlaraBo is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm and is traded under the ticker KLARA B.
