

Viggo Leisner to leave the Board due to other professional obligations

Stockholm, November 1, 2022

Viggo Leisner, who has served on board of Arcane Crypto since January 2021 has informed Arcane Crypto AB that he, unfortunately, will have to resign from the board due to other professional obligations.

“On behalf of the board and Arcane Crypto I would like to sincerely thank Viggo for his contribution to Arcane over the last year and a half”, says Arcane Crypto Chairman Michael Jackson.

The change will take effect when registered in the Swedish company register.

About Arcane Crypto

Arcane Crypto develops the infrastructure and products that enable worldwide adoption of bitcoin and digital assets. Arcane builds a platform for users to learn, trade and invest in digital assets, all from one account. Our market leading research content educates our users and builds trust. Arcane achieves scale by providing a platform with open APIs, allowing third parties to develop their own products using our technology and then distribute their products to our users.
